

History Colorado

External Announcement – Internship Opportunity

Internship Title: Marketing Production Internship - Summer 2026

Internship Location: History Colorado Center, Denver, CO

Stipend: $2,400 The stipend is not salary or compensation. The stipend is meant to support study and research during the tenure of the appointment and will be issued upon completion of the internship.

*Qualified candidates may receive academic credit through their college or university. Check with your school's Internship Coordinator BEFORE accepting the hiring offer to determine if this position satisfies the criteria for receiving academic credit.

Apply By: March 31, 2026

Desired Schedule: 16 hours per week (May–September 2026). Exact schedule to be determined by the intern and their supervisor.

Broad Scope of Position: History Colorado seeks a creative, detail-oriented intern to support digital content creation, social media development, website management, and digital accessibility initiatives. This internship provides hands-on experience contributing to a full marketing and communications cycle—from concept and production to deployment and analysis—within a collaborative, statewide organization.

Key Responsibilities:

- Create original digital content (video, graphics, and written materials) for social media and marketing campaigns using tools such as Canva, Adobe Creative Suite, and CapCut.
- Design and update marketing collateral for digital and print use, including event promotions, website graphics, newsletters, and other branded materials.
- Research and write engaging, historically accurate social media content for both timely and evergreen use.
- Assist with website content updates and basic optimization using Drupal.
- Support implementation of digital accessibility best practices across marketing and web materials.
- Collaborate with the Marketing & Communications team to manage production timelines and multiple deadlines.

History Colorado

Learning Outcomes:

- Gain hands-on experience with industry-standard platforms including Drupal, Emma, Sprout Social, Basecamp, Canva, and Adobe Creative Suite.
- Build a professional portfolio of marketing and communications materials.
- Develop project management, client communication, and workflow prioritization skills.
- Strengthen knowledge of digital marketing strategy and accessible content best practices.
- Participate in marketing and communications planning meetings and campaign development.

This internship is ideal for a student or emerging professional interested in digital marketing, communications, design, or public history who is eager to gain real-world experience in a mission-driven cultural organization.

Desired Skills & Academic Field of Study:

- Marketing, Graphic Design, Art, Journalism, Advertising, English, or a related field.
- Detail-oriented with an ability to synthesize information
- Comfortable working independently, and willing to ask questions and seek direction when unsure or in need of clarity

To Apply for this Position: Submit a resume, cover letter, and your answer to the question below to Director of Volunteer Engagement, Emily Dobish, emily.dobish@state.co.us. *Include the name of this internship in your email subject line.

Please click here:

https://www.historycolorado.org/sites/default/files/media/document/2020/Anti-Racism_Grounding_Virtues.pdf.

Answer this question: How have these guiding principles shown up in your previous work and /or how would you contribute to these virtues in your internship position at History Colorado?

A condition of employment is the successful completion of a background check.

History Colorado is committed to anti-racism practices across its institution and outlined in these grounding virtues. As such, we encourage members of Black, Indigenous, Latino Hispanic, People of Color, LGBTQ+ and persons with disabilities communities to apply for this internship.